

Supervises juvenile probationers and counsels them and their parents; makes regular visits to offices, homes, and schools to review youth's progress; sets up psychological assessments for probationers, and reviews results; apprehends probation violators; transports juveniles to placements facilities, TJJD facilities, appointments and other places as needed; makes referrals to outside agencies when appropriate; documents all contacts and prepares various required reports case plans on a timely basis; prepares and presents at case staffing meetings and compiles other reports/documentations to meet TJJD standards.

- Required - Bachelor's degree in a behavioral science (i.e. criminology, law, social work, psychology, or sociology or related field approved by the Texas Juvenile Justice Department) from an accredited college or university recognized by the Texas Higher Education Board;
- Applicant must possess a Valid Texas driver's license and safe driving record;
- Applicant must be able to obtain Juvenile Probation Officer Certification as regulated by the Texas Juvenile Justice Department within six months;
- Must also have an ability to work with difficult "at risk" clients and their parents;
- Must have No convictions or deferred adjudications for criminal offenses other than minor traffic violations in the past 10 years